Please stand for the Pledge of Allegiance, and remain standing as we pause for a moment of silence.
I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America, and to the republic for which it stands, one nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

Seniors - the following scholarships are now available in the Career Center: Next Generation Hoosier Educator's Scholarship, Knights of Pythias Scholarship, and the Cindy McKinney Scholarship. Check out your school email for more information about each of these awards.

The choir department is hosting a hat day this Friday. The cost is $1.00.

Culinary will be serving coffee bar tomorrow, Thursday. We will serve cinnamon dolce lattes for $3 and iced pumpkin muffins for $1.

Congratulations to Lexi Tompkins for being named academic all state honorable mention for cross country

Attention students and staff starting Thursday, November 8th at lunch you can purchase a Gobble gram for you or a friend or even ten friends if you want. The Horticulture class and FFA will be selling Gobble Grams to help fund a community service project coming up in the future. Gobble grams will be on sale from November 8th-15th at lunch. They are just $1 and will be delivered to the recipients on Monday, November 19th.

FFA members helping with Rake N Run after school today and need a ride please report to the Ag room right after school.

Attention All CAAP Members: Remember to stop by Ms. Herre's room TODAY to turn in chicken dinner ticket numbers and money. See Ms. Herre with any questions or concerns.

Seniors, as many of you may have seen, last year there were no senior quotes because of lack of submission. We are asking for quotes early so you all have plenty of time to submit one. Please fill this out ASAP. Remember in 10 to 20 years, you will want to look back at the book and be proud of what you had to say. Due Tuesday November 13

Word of the day: desultory (adj)

Jumping, or passing, from one thing or subject to another, without order or rational connection; without logical sequence; disconnected.

The lawyer's closing argument should have been organized and structured, rather than the desultory and rambling remarks that failed to convince the jury of his client's innocence.
